

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

Nino Andreatta Fellowship

---

Call for Applications

Alma Graduate School/Università di Bologna is pleased to announce the Nino Andreatta Fellowship for the academic year 2010-2011. The Nino Andreatta Fellowship was created to honor the memory of Professor Beniamino Andreatta and to help young Italian researchers with significant international experience to enter into the Italian Academy. This program is open to Italian citizens with a non Italian Ph.D. Degree in the Social Sciences. Applicants shall be involved in theoretical or applied research, with relevant implications for global politics, economics, and business.

The Scientific Board of the Fellowship, considered the fact that the topic Nino Andreatta chose for his final lecture on the date of his retirement from University, was the 1997 financial and economic crisis in East Asia as well as instruments to avoid future shocks, has determined that for the academic year 2010-2011 priority will be given to candidates with a Ph.D. in Economics or Finance and that preference shall be given to projects concerning international financial markets and international economic and financial policies and institutions.

Application requirements and Fellowship description:

- In order to apply, prospective candidates must be Italian citizens and must have fully completed a Ph.D. program abroad in the Social Sciences.
- Fellowships provide a salary of US $ 55.000,00, gross, plus benefits. This fellowship also includes a US $ 10.000,00 research fund, which can be used for research or conference travels or other research expenses. Fellows can apply for additional research support during the first year. The length of the first appointment is September 1, 2010 through August 31, 2011.
- Fellowships can be renewed for one or two years. Request for renewal must be submitted by March 31, 2011 and will be evaluated by April 15, 2011 by the Selection Committee.
- Alma Graduate School will provide logistical, technological, and secretarial support and will assist Fellows in finding a constructive research environment within the Università di Bologna.

Rights and duties of the Nino Andreatta Fellow:

- The Fellow is expected to carry out the research described in the project proposal submitted at the time of application.
- The Fellow is also expected to teach a thirty-hour course in a Master Program at Alma Graduate School, and to give a doctoral seminar within the University of Bologna.
- The Fellow will be entitled to apply for the support of a research assistant.
- The Fellow is encouraged to apply, with the assistance of Alma Graduate School and the Università di Bologna, for national and international research calls and tenders to receive further financial support for his/her research project.
- An office for the Fellow will be provided by one of the Departments of the University of Bologna.
- The Fellow may apply to the Istituto di Studi Avanzati of the University of Bologna for accommodation and other logistic requirements.

Application materials include:

- Application form.
- Curriculum vitae, including the list of publications and discussion papers.
- PDF copies of the three publications or discussion papers, which the candidate considers his/her most relevant contributions so far.
- Project proposal: 1000 words describing the research and writing plans during the planned period of stay, specifying the expected results.
- Two letters of recommendation.

The application form is to be sent in electronic format via e-mail along with the project proposal and curriculum vitae Letters of recommendation are also to be submitted as PDF files from the official academic email of the referee.

All application material, including letters of recommendation, should be sent to: andreatta.fellowship@almaweb.unibo.it by March 31st, 2010. Interviews will take place between April 15th and April 22nd, 2010. Notifications will reach successful candidates by April 30th, 2010.

---

The Andreatta Fellowship has been made available thanks to the contribution of

